Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file is deemed objectionable because it depicts a woman sexually abusing a boy by performing a sexual act upon him. The publication legitimises and perpetuates the idea that children are sexually available, and are appropriate subjects for adult sexual attention. Therefore it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes.

This classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression provided by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, however it is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 are deemed to be objectionable. This is a reasonable limitation on the freedom of expression that reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young from sexual exploitation.
